I know that Marcos has my money, my shoes, and the table and chairs for my dining room. He thinks (believes) that I don't know this, but, yes, I know it. First, the money. I know that he has it because I can see it in that drawer (over there). Second, the shoes. I need them because if I don't wear them, I can't run fast or (si) jump well. Third, the table. I don't know why (por que) he has it or (si) why he wants it. I want to put it in my new house. He believes that the chairs are his, but it's not true. They are mine. And I want them now.
