

Práctica: Hotel Complaints + subjunctive

Spanish 2

el 7 de abril de 2015

Imagine that you are writing a complaint letter to a hotel manager.

Translate to Spanish using subjunctive and vocabulary related to hotels, from textbook pages 254 - 255.

- 1) It's important that you understand the problems that I have with my hotel room. [comprender]
- 2) It's necessary that the room have air conditioning, because it's over 100 degrees outside (almost 40 degrees Celcius)! [tener]
- 3) It's ridiculous that guests need to go to the cafe to use the restroom, because the rooms don't have bathrooms. [necesitar]
- 4) I doubt that you visit the hotel often. [visitar]
- 5) I can't believe that the elevator doesn't function. [funcionar]
- 6) I insist on that you try to sleep on the beds, they are like rocks! [intentar]
- 7) I hope that you decide to resolve these problems quickly. [decidir]
