Spanish 2

lunes, el 23 de febrero, 2014

Think back to reasons for using subjunctive. Decide if each sentence would translate to Spanish using subjunctive or indicative:

1. I want to buy you a pizza.
2. I want you to buy me a Ferrari.
3. She wants that he asks her out.
4. It's important that you study tonight.
5. It's important to study before the SATs.
6. It's terrible that your grandma is sick.
7. It's terrible to have a grandma in the hospital.
8. Hopefully we all receive A's on the test.
9. I hope that you receive a million dollars.
10. It's not likely that we all fit in that Mini.
11. There's no way we will all fit on your motorcycle.
12. I doubt that you have room for ten people on a skateboard.
13. I'm happy to be here in class.
14. I'm happy that we're all here instead of ... not.
