

¿Pretérito o imperfecto?

Choose whether each of the following statements would require using the preterite or imperfect tense in Spanish by circling “P” for preterite and “I” for imperfect:

- 1.) I ran five miles yesterday. P / I
- 2.) It was four o'clock. P / I
- 3.) He was reading the newspaper. P / I
- 4.) She studied for two hours last night. P / I
- 5.) We went to Canada every year in the summer. P / I
- 6.) I used to ride my bike all day long. P / I
- 7.) Wow! Was she angry! P / I
- 8.) You arrived at the hotel in the afternoon. P / I
- 9.) The cat jumped out the window. P / I
- 10.) It was snowing. P / I
- 11.) It rained yesterday afternoon. P / I
- 12.) He was wearing a black leather jacket. P / I
- 13.) She wore a red skirt yesterday. P / I
- 14.) We lost the match. P / I
- 15.) We were so sad. P / I
- 16.) They vacationed in Hawaii last year. P / I
- 17.) They usually vacationed in Florida. P / I
- 18.) They never vacationed in Mexico. P / I
- 19.) Did you have to work last Saturday? P / I
- 20.) The dog ran after the mailman. P / I