

To the tune of “I want it that way” Escrito por The Backstreet Boys

Use POR / when you describe an exchange / swap, trade, or buy

And how long / or the means by which you did something

Use POR / to go by,
or through / or alongside

Use POR / for speed by time
Like millas por hora

Telling why? POR gives motive when you're speaking Coming by? POR tells for whom you're seeking

To describe MOTION, DURING, MOTIVE, MEANS BY,
TRADE, SEARCH or PER/BY

To the tune of “Hit me baby, one more time”
by Britney ‘PARA’ Spears

USE PARA

USE PARA

USE PARA

It's who you work for or to say “considering”

when you compare opinions

It shows your purpose

when the next word's infinitive or what it's used for when a noun's next

FOR me? PARA tells who receives

Where you're going, and when you need to get things – get things done

PARA tells TOWARD WHERE,

WHO YOU WORK FOR,(DEADLINES)

FOR WHOM IT IS,

CONSIDERING... (OPINIONS)

IN ORDER TO + infinitive

And WHAT ITS USED FOR

PARA gives these every time